Date: Monday, September 9, 2024, 7-10pm EST

Location: Virtual (Zoom)

Course Director:

Jonathan Torres, DO, MPA, FACOFP, FAAO

Register online at www.academyofosteopathy.org

Course Description

This 3-hour interactive virtual course is intended to help ONMM residency graduates prepare for the NMM/OMM written board certifying examination. This course will be delivered via virtual methods as determined by AAO, and will include significant real-time audience response participation.

Preparation for the exam will include 30 practice questions covering the breadth of content expected to be represented on the examination. We will review the questions, discuss strategies for writing the questions and identify the correct answer. Audience responses will help drive test-taking strategies as we progress through the course.

Course Goals & Objectives

At the conclusion of this workshop, the learner should be able to:

1. Increase the proportion of participating diplomates successfully passing their written board exam on the first try.
2. Correct audience responses exceed 85% for the correct answer on individual questions in the program.

Continuing Medical Education

3 credits of AOA Category 1-A CME anticipated
