

AAO RESIDENT OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Resident of the Year award is conferred by the Academy to recognize the resident who has contributed to the Academy, has contributed to osteopathic principles and practices at his/her residency program, and who has participated in Academy events, including, but not limited to, AAO Convocation, AOA OMED conference, and/or AAO educational programs.

Nominated individuals exhibit osteopathic principles and practices at their residency programs and encourage other residents, faculty and students to continue to use osteopathic principles and practice during their residency career and practice. An application with a brief description/essay of why this individual is deserving of this award is submitted to the AAO Awards Committee.

An AAO component society or AOA approved osteopathic residency program may submit only one (1) nomination per organization or residency program. All residency programs are encouraged to nominate their top candidate each year. Previous nominations have been received from the following programs. NMM/OMM Residency at Michigan State University; Combined Family Medicine and Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine Residency Northeast Regional Medical Center, Kirksville, Missouri; University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine NMM/OMM + 1 Residency Program; and the Florida Hospital - East Orlando (FHEO) Integrated Family Medicine/Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine.
